their methods. What

by "our job"...?

Goddamn it.
I'll need to report this
to HQ and the other departments.

Whoa, hold up Assistant Manager Kim. We can report this later.

I'm going to head out somewhere so hand over the car keys. Try to gather as many weapons and personnel as you can and wait until I get back.
